A letter (on company letterhead) from the employer is required stating the employer's willingness to cooperate with program staff during the period of work release from the jail.

The employer must provide you with a copy of the company's current Minnesota Workman's Compensation Law insurance policy covering you at work. You will need a copy of the employers Workman's Compensation Declaration Page.

Independent contractors or self employed will be determined using a nine point definition. Substantial documentation is required to be considered an independent contractor or self-employed. Independent contractors must have workman's compensation insurance through a company they contract with. Self employed must be covered by an individual health policy with a minimum of $300,000.00 coverage.

All work release applicants (other than self-employed with no employees) must be covered by workman's compensation insurance. If you claim to be exempt we will not consider your application any further.

If your job requires you to be mobile, you will be required to be on and pay for a GPS monitor. Failed monitor responsibilities on your part may result in loss of work release privileges.

Initial work release fees are due at jail booking. The daily work release fee is $12.00 per day housed. An enrollment fee of $30.00 will be assessed. Total needed at booking is $200.00 cash for your initial payment. Start up for those who will be on GPS monitor is $310.00. We only accept cash payment for work release fees.

After the initial payment, all additional payments must be made on Friday's. $84.00 weekly for those not on PGS monitor and $189.00 for those on GPS monitor. Failure to pay in advance will cancel your work release privilege. No work release will be allowed if the money is not in your jail account.

Transportation may not exceed 1.5 hours per one way trip or 90 miles per one way trip.

If someone is providing transportation for you, this person MUST come to the south end of the jail every scheduled work day and identify themselves as your approved driver. They will use the intercom to inform Master Control they are here to pick you up. After indentifying themselves they may return to the approved vehicle. Jail Staff will not release you if the driver does not come to the door. Drivers should arrive 10 minutes prior to your release time. It is your responsibility to inform all drivers of this procedure.

All work release schedules will be based on a 40 hour work week + reasonable transportation time. If you work more than 40 hours per week, you must alter your schedule with your employer. Schedules are to be provided at the pre-incarceration interview. Compiling of work shifts in the first partial week of incarceration or the last partial week of incarceration will not be allowed. No one will be allowed to work 7 consecutive days on work release.

You will not be allowed to work on your jail report date. That day we will be doing jail orientation, jail classification, collect urinalysis, perform a mantoux test if required and collect DNA if appropriate.

Work release inmates do not work on legal holidays. Any exceptions must be approved by the Jail Programmer 3 business days in advance of the holiday.

If you are on any medications, or have medical or mental health conditions these must be reported to the Jail Medical Unit at least 10 days in advance of your jail report. Their phone # is 320-629-8403. You will be responsible to pay for all medical expenses during your incarceration. All medications taken during your incarceration must be distributed by the jail. You are not allowed to self medicate or pickup prescriptions without specific arrangements with the Jail Medical Unit.

The law requires the Pine County Jail to have a tuberculosis screening program. If you will be incarcerated for 14 days or longer you will be required to have a mantoux test. There are two ways to accomplish this screening. You may go to your own clinic at your own expense to have the test and the test reading completed with documentation provided from the clinic. This documentation must be provided at your pre-incarceration interview. This option would insure that you do not have interruptions to your work schedule. You may wait until your incarceration and have your mantoux test scheduled at the jail. If you choose this option, your work schedule could be interrupted to facilitate the mantoux test or test result reading.

Prescription medications (get approval with Jail Medical Unit 10 days in advance)(bring in original bottles)

Dear Employer:

On _____ your employee _____ will begin serving a jail sentence at the Pine County Jail in Pine City, MN. The sentencing judge has allowed work release for your employee subject to the jail's approval. It is our goal to keep employment continuous with as few interruptions as possible.

Your employee will meet with jail program staff a week in advance of jail report for a pre-incarceration interview. The employee will need a letter on company letterhead, addressed to program staff, that indicates your company's willingness to cooperate with program staff during this term of incarceration. This cooperation would include providing work schedules, verifications of employment, verification of attendance at work by phone or on-site visit and compliance with work release rules and procedures. The employee will need you to provide a copy of your company's current Minnesota Workman's Compensation Law insurance policy covering the employee.

After the interview, a member of our program staff will be calling to verify employment, verify schedules, provide the jail outdate, address any other details and answer any questions you may have in regard to the work release.

Your employee will miss work if scheduled on the jail intake date (generally a Tuesday or Wednesday). This is due to our need to book them in to the jail, conduct jail orientation, collect a urinalysis and do jail classification.

Feel free to call me if you have questions or concerns about your employee and their work release. I am available Monday-Friday 8am to 4pm at 320-591-1450.

I ask that you please sign off that you received this letter and have your employee return it to our program staff.
